Judge Hall Provokes Gov. Russell to Wrathful Statement

Reference to the Governor's Pardoning Too Many Causes Lett From Executive, Who Takes a Shot at Newspapers Which Makes Sullens Unlumber Big Gun. Not Number But Those "With Money" Pardoned.

The Sentinel feels almost that it should apologize to its readers for permitting any of Gov. Russell's crude, inelegant and almost vulgar effusions to appear in its columns. Yet he is Governor of the State, and even if Governor by a slip or accident, still he is Governor and as Governor what he says necessarily gets more or less attention. His position puts him in the limelight somewhat akin to curiosity that hovers around a base criminal under sentence for a heinous crime.

Judge R. S. Hall of Hattiesburg, it seems in charging a grand jury at a recent term of the Hattiesburg court, used this language:

"With the present Governor in Jackson I cannot promise to keep prisoners in the penitentiary long, but I shall certainly send them there."

When the Governor saw what was credited to the judge, he wrote him a letter of date of Nov. 4, which appears below.

The reader is asked to note Gov. Russell's crudeness of expression and the almost silly, puerile statements he makes in some instances. It would seem a pity that he does not know his own limitations well enough to get somebody to either write what he has to write or to correct it after he has messed it up.

The reader is asked to note, too, that the Governor refers to "cut throats, blackmailers and predatory interests"—a crowd worse than highwaymen. There are many who think that "predatory interests"—whatever that is—have found a ready access to the Governor's mind.

It is stated that Judge Hall wrote the Governor in reply to his letter of Nov. 4, and that his letter contained in part the following:

"You asked to be informed as to when I may be expected to make further references from the bench to your pardoning methods, in order that you may be present to defend yourself. If you will consult the law fixing the time and place for court sessions where I charge the grand jury you might be present at such time and place. Then I will say to you and of you what I think is of public interest, and should you desire any reasonable time to defend yourself and damn me, I shall take pleasure in extending it to you."

The Governor did not go to Laurel where Judge Hall convened court last Monday and to which place he was invited by the Judge.

The reader will note that Gov. Russell refers to the Jackson Daily News and the Clarion-Ledger and other papers, which prompted Fred Sullens to pen the following editorial for his paper last Sunday:

"The Difference"

"In one of his typical outbursts of hysteria, Governor Russell denounces newspaper editors in general, and the Jackson editors in particular, and says all sorts of uncomplimentary things about the writing fraternity. Well and good.

"All editors, whether of high or low degree, appreciate the bad opinion of Governor Russell.

"If he should say anything complimentary concerning one of them it would be construed as a deadly insult and a blighting disgrace.

"There is no record, however, that any Jackson editor has ever been sued for seduction or charged with connivance at criminal abortion.

"It might also be added that the Jackson editors enjoy good social standing in the community where they reside, which is more than can be said of Governor Russell. He has resided in Jackson nearly three years, and throughout that period has been a pariah, a social outcast. If he has ever been invited to a public function here where respectable people gathered it is not a matter of record."

The Governor's letter is a characteristic utterance, and is in full as follows:

"November 4, 1922.
Hon Robt. S. Hall,
Hattiesburg, Miss.
Dear Judge:

"I have before me a clipping purporting to come from your paper (The Weekly Citizen, Hattiesburg) in which you make some very caustic comment upon the Board of Pardons. I have also another clipping purporting to quote you at a recent term of the Forest county court in your charge to the grand jury, in which you state the following: 'With the present governor in Jackson, I can but I shall certainly send them there.' Now, Judge, I trust you will be fair enough to print what I have to say herein in your paper.

"I desire to say, first, that the records of my office show that up to today, there have been two hundred and thirty-six pardons issued from the penitentiary in nearly three years of the work of the State Board of Pardons and myself. This is a smaller number than has ever been issued in the same length of time in the past twenty years. The official figures bear me out in this. The official records show that Governor Brewer pardoned more than twenty-two hundred in his four years and between six and eight hundred of these were for capital offenses—life terms, if you please—which number of life-terms is twice as many as will be pardoned of every kind and description in the four years of my administration.

"Second. Your attention is respectfully called to the fact that a very large percentage of the above two hundred and thirty-six has been for matters which judges, district attorneys, jurymen and churchmen have said there was a total miscarriage of justice, or where excessive penalties were imposed.

"Third. (And I want you to get this clearly in your mind). You as judge, have recommended pardons in twice as many cases as all the seventeen circuit judges in Mississippi since I have been governor. Your record is here to show this. If you have made a mistake in your court, as you must have done by asking me to pardon such a large number, it follows that you do not know what you are doing at the time you impose the sentence, or else you were prompted by a spirit of malice, hatred or ill will. I would not like to charge you with the latter. I prefer to presume it errors of judgment. What the facts are, of course I am not advised.

"Fourth. I want to say to you, frankly, but respectfully, that the constitution makers in their wisdom provided for three separate and distinct departments of government. Each has its separate powers and prerogatives. If an official is honest and obeys his oath of office, what right, under our constitution and laws, has he to criticize the actions of another department? It can not be so unless there is corruption at the bottom of it. This could be the only possible excuse. If I have made any errors of judgment, and doubtless I have made some, I am sure that your errors of judgment admitted by you are many times my own, but you have never heard me criticize you, have you? Then what manly man has a right to criticize under these circumstances? Has the governor the right, the privilege, and would the people have any respect for him, if he constantly criticised the legislators or the courts of the land for doing what to them seems right and proper, freed from all corruption and improper interest? I think not. Then, what right have you to criticize another department of government, before the people mind you, the fact of which is to bring him into odium and the high office what he holds into disrepute. As a matter of fact, I would be guilty of contempt of court if I should make any remark about any court like you are alleged to have made about me. Then why are you not guilty of as grave a crime when you trespass upon the prerogatives allotted to my hands.

"I took occasion to say publicly more emphatically than I am expressing to you my answer to the criticisms along this line in the past two years. Before the legislature, I said that any man or set of men that said or insinuated that any member of the Board of Pardons was corrupt in the least or that I had been corrupt in the least in the handling of any pardon that he was an infamous liar and the truth was not in him. I repeat that to you and to the world. There has not been the least crookedness nor shadowy work so far as the board is concerned, as I believe, and in my own case there has been none. And, Judge, with all due respect, you have a right to make any such criticism as this when sitting upon the bench and ostensibly performing your official functions. If at any time, you expect to do this, please have fairness enough to let me know when you are going to say this and I will bring my record and yours and we will adjourn court for a short time and address the people in a joint discussion and I will see what you know about this thing. No man can impugn my motives about any matter and get by with it. I have taken enough from newspaper men simply because it is a brutal custom that the good people have allowed to grow up in this state and it is a curse and a disgrace to the state, and you know it. And, I certainly hope that you will not get poisoned with such disreputable, depraved creatures as Fred Sullens, 'High' Henry and his successors, and this class of editors, who have done more to bring Mississippi into disrepute and odium by the abuse and vilification of her officials than any thousands of criminals that ever infested this state, and if you have made the utterance that I have not exercised the utmost good faith in every pardon and concerning every pardon, then I shall hold you, sir, to the strictest accountability, personally, and if you will mention this case, I will discuss that with you personally. I again repeat, you, of all judges, are entitled to say less about pardons than any judge because if I have erred, you are at least twice as responsible as all the circuit judges of this state. I am using just as mild language as I can, respectful too, but I mean just what I say and I trust you will think this

TO HAND OUT MIL- LIONS TO SHIP- ING TRUST

Besides Practically Giving Away Vessels That Cost $3,000,000,000 Republicans Want to Hand Bonus of $75,000,000 Annually to Ship Owners.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 18.—In the face of the country's verdict against the Republican Congress and the Republican administration, returned by the voters on November 7, President Harding has made good his promise to urge the passage of the ship bonus bill, which contemplates the sale of the Government's merchant marine for $2,800,000,000 less than its cost and the bestowal of $750,000,000 in subsidies on its purchasers. A special session of Congress is to be called for November 20, it is officially announced, that the ship bonus bill may be rushed to enactment, if possible, before March 4, 1923.

The evil principle upon which the Republican profiteers' tariff law is predicated is the foundation of the ship bonus bill. The latter, like the former, has for its purpose—and in minds of its advocates has for its justification also—the granting of public funds to private interests under the color of conferring a public benefit.

It is believed that many Republican Senators who are to confront the voters in 1924 and Republican Representatives who narrowly escaped with their political lives on November 7, will not be obedient followers of President Harding in passing the ship bonus bill as they were in enacting the profiteers' tariff bill. If the President hasn't learned anything from the elections it is felt that most of the Republican Congressmen have derived a salutary lesson from it and are not likely to forget it within the short space of thirteen days.

President Harding will find the marshalling of enough votes to pass his pet measure in the special session or the regular session beginning next month a difficult task, it is predicted. It is expected that instead of a quick disposal of the bill, the President may be met in the Senate by a demand for an investigation of the auspices under which the ship bonus scheme was conceived.

Developments following the partial destruction of a wooden ship sold by the United States Shipping Board to a private corporation for about $1600 have furnished striking comment on the value of the vessels of the Government fleet which the Harding administration is trying to sell for about ten per cent of its original cost.

It is announced in a news dispatch from Alexandria, Va., that the Western Marine & Salvage Company, which has been buying ships from the Shipping Board is employing 100 men in the work of dismantling these vessels and is to engage about 200 more. The hull of the Alanthus, the ship which was damaged by fire on October 24, is being pumped dry, after burning to the water's edge, and her machinery is to be salvaged. The dispatch to the Washington Post, semi-official organ of the Harding administration and advocate of the President's ship bonus bill under which all the Government fleet would be sold to private interests, says:

"It is believed that the machinery, which constitutes the most valuable part of the salvage, is practically uninjured by either the fire or the flooding which followed."

When the ship burned, the Washington Times published a dispatch from Alexandria giving the information that "according to the officials of Alexandria, it is estimated that the damage (to the Alanthus) was $25,000."

It is difficult to understand how a ship that was sold for $1,600 could suffer damage of $25,000 unless the price paid by the purchasers was very much less than the true value. But the fact remains that a big corporation finds advantage in hiring 100 men to dismantle the Alanthus after the hull has been ruined.

Opponents of the ship subsidy declare that the procedure contemplated in the pending measure is equivalent to giving the ships away and then bestowing rewards totaling $500,000,000 for their operation by new owners. The borrowers of the $125,000,000, which the bill pledges the government to lend, would obtain the loans at an interest rate of 2 per cent for terms as long as 15 years. The only collateral pledged for the repayment of the loans would be the ships.

over carefully before you answer. I have been abused by thugs, cut-throats, blackmailers, and predatory interests and I am not entitled to be thus criticised by any judge on the bench nor by any official or other person.

"Yours for a square deal,
"LEE M. RUSSELL,
"Governor."

Regardless of many more any other Governor might have pardoned, there never has been the stench attached to issuing a pardon that there was to the Golsby negro who was credited with having had at the time of his incarceration about $15,000.00. If Lieut. Gov. Casteel is correct in what he says about Gov. Russell, and the poor unfortunate convict without money finds it very difficult to get access to Gov. Russell's clemency.

ANDY GUMP WIRES THANKS TO GRE- NADA CITIZEN

B. C. Duncan Hears from Man Who Ran on Platform 100 Per Cent for People. Down with Volsteadism, He Says. Mentions Three Other Grenada Citizens.

Grenada is always to the forefront. Andy Gump knows where to find the real friends of the people. It is indeed a great compliment to receive a congratulatory message from a candidate for Congress who has been as widely advertised as Andy Gump. Andy knows good politicians, too. The only thing about this message that makes the Editor of this paper think that Andy has been mixing his drinks in his exhilaration over his triumph is that he should mention his name in connection with the other two gentlemen and barrooms. However, the Editor takes it that Andy slipped in his name to make the public think perhaps he might be joking as to the other two gentlemen.

Mr. B. C. Duncan, one of Grenada's most prominent citizens and leading business factors got the following message from Andy, which, among other things, shows that Andy has not forgot his friends since his election:

"I wish to compliment you for the splendid work you did in your state. Our enemies concede the election of Andy Gump by a safe majority; recount amounts to nothing. Hooray! Not having made any promises to the prohibitionists, I am the hope of all thirsty Americans. Down with Volsteadism. The wicked shall perish but not us, but our case demands haste. See our old barroom friends, Tol Thomas, O. F. Lawrence and Edgar Underwood. Send one thousand dollars for champagne expenses. But for my influence in Congress, Mississippi would go so dry that you would have to sprinkle the bed of the Yalobusha river to settle the dust. I am still 100% for the people.

"Andy Gump."

THE HIGH SCHOOL MEET FOR GRENADA

As a result of a meeting of a number of North Mississippi High School Superintendents held at the public school building in Grenada Saturday, an organization to be known as the North Central Mississippi School Masters Club was perfected. The purpose of the organization is to promote all high school activities in the north central portion of the State. A big high school meet will be held in Grenada under the management of this organization probably in April. The following schools, and possibly others, will likely be in the organization and participate in the Field meet: Grenada, Oxford, Water Valley, Coffeeville, Senatobia, Coldwater, Como, Tate County A. H. S., Independence, Arkabutla, Batesville, Sardis, Courtland A. H. S., Oakland A. H. S., Charleston, Duck Hill, Winona, Vaiden, Durant, Lexington, McAdams, Goodman A. H. S., Kosciusko, Kilmichael A. H. S., Eupora, North and South Carrollton, Holcomb, College Hill.

The Field Meet will consist in literary contests in music, expression, declamation, History, English, Mathematics, Latin, and athletic contests in baseball, basket ball, running, jumping, vaulting, etc. Only high schools and bona fide high school students can participate. The movement will mean much as an incentive in all kinds of school work and activities. The athletic events will be held at the grounds of the Grenada Fair Association and the literary events at the new high school building if possible otherwise in some other suitable building.

THE NEW PASTOR HERE SUNDAY

Rev. Melville Johnson and his wife arrived in Grenada Thursday and are now domiciled at the Methodist parsonage. Mr. Johnson will deliver his first sermon as pastor of the Methodist church Sunday, to which the general public is cordially invited.

STORES ENTERED BY BURGLARS

Burglars entered the stores of Smith and Curry and C. V. Gibson at Holcomb last Saturday night. Cash drawers and cash registers were rifled, but the burglars found but little coin. Evidently but little merchandise was taken. Bloodhounds were secured but no satisfactory trace of the thieves could be had.

ment of the loans would be the ships upon which the money was borrowed, while the amount lent by the government in any given case might be the equivalent of two-thirds the market value of the vessel.

Democratic members of congress are making some headway in their argument against this consideration by citing the fact that farmers who obtained money from the federal loan banks can get accommodations only by paying interest at the rate of 6 per cent a year for limited periods, and in sums not exceeding 50 per cent of the market value of the farms they mortgaged as security. They declare that no such generosity is suggested in respect to the farmers or small business men or wage-workers as the administration proposes to extend to the ship owners.

Four of Councilmen Give Their Viewpoint of Salaries

Thinks Defeat of Two Mill Extra Tax Levy Means a Bond Issue Defends Salary Paid Supt. Power Plant. Intimates Mayor Not Anxious to Have Present Salary Reduced.

Grenada, Miss., Nov. 21, 1922.
Editor Sentinel:

Through your goodness in publishing the recent letters by "Citizen and Tax Payer", the Mayor and our good friend and brother Alderman, Dr. W. P. Ferguson, the people of Grenada, who have not gone to the trouble to investigate records and obtain facts, have only one side of the question, and trust you will accept for publication the following brief facts bearing on the subject.

Taking up the matter of Salaries and tax levy referred to in Mayor Tatum's recently published list of recommendations, wish to say in the beginning that his statement about a 30 mill tax levy is not correct for such a levy was never thought of. He knew it would not be more than 27 mills, if the recent two additional mills were voted for general fund, and right here will say that those who voted against this, really voted for another bond issue, so to speak. Will explain that the City has been receiving six to eight thousand dollars annually from County tax funds which by certain recent legislation over which we have no control has been withdrawn. This will have to be replaced by some means of taxation, hence the request to add the two mills for general fund purposes, which would only have put the general fund levy back where it was a few years ago, before the county revenue came to us.

The Marshal's salary was reduced $25.00 per month, Bookkeeper at the power house $15.00 per month, and that of the street commissioner $25.00 per month at the beginning of the new administration. The Mayor's salary was automatically fixed at $50.00 when he was elected, this being the principal plank in his platform. But while the Board was considering the fixing of the salaries the Mayor mentioned the fact that his salary was "mighty little". Then a motion was made and adopted that the Mayor's salary be fixed at $100 per month and that he be requested to turn the perquisites of the office into the City Treasury. As for ourselves, we were surprised when such a motion was made, and still more surprised when the Mayor accepted an increase of even one penny more than he promised the voters he would serve for when making his campaign. At the October meeting the Mayor, doubtless realizing he had made a mistake in accepting the increase in salary, requested that it be changed back to $50.00 per month and give him the perquisites of the office, which for the past few months had been around $100.00 per month. No definite action was taken by the Board at this meeting but promised him that it would be taken up at the November meeting when all the other salaries were to be gone into again. Then at the November meeting when question of salaries arose and the Mayor was asked if he still wanted another change made he would never say definitely but stated that "it had gone this far and that anything the Board did about it would be satisfactory". Then the motion was made and adopted that salaries be fixed as they now are for the remainder of the term, which according to the records, means that so far as the Mayor's salary is concerned, he will receive the $100.00 per month and the perquisites still to go into the City Treasury, and right here allow me to correct the statement of Dr. Ferguson in his letter published Nov. 10th in which he says the Mayor would get the perquisites of the office in addition to salary of $100.00.

Now, as to the salary of Superintendent of the Water and Light plant, we are perfectly willing to submit this to any successful business man who will make himself familiar with the duties of the superintendent, his responsibilities, lay aside all personal differences, and consider the fact that the maintenance of our plant together with the added equipment within the past three years, costing more than $20,000.00, has required not one penny tax levy. All of this has been paid out of the earnings of the plant. The salary of the light plant superintendent is $175.00 per month, and we consider this a minimum amount for the service rendered and dare say you will find no private corporation paying as small a salary. We admit you could probably fill the place at a lower salary but would be false economy.

We quite agree with Dr. Ferguson that every possible item of expense should be cut, but, efficiency and proper upkeep of what the tax payers already own should be the first consideration, in fact, a business necessity.

The facts are: 10 mills of the tax assessment go to maintain schools, which no citizen would do without, 9 mills to apply on bonded indebtedness, all of which was voted by taxpayers, and 6 mills is for general expenses—the greatest of which is street costs, and if more permanent paving was done a great deal of this expense would be eliminated.

Trust no one will misunderstand us in this matter. We happened to be the "three" in the "3 to 2" voting for the fixing of salaries referred to in Dr. Ferguson's article, and are open for conviction at all times when convinced we are wrong. It is generally conceded that government used to be a matter of politics, but our little experience is that successful government is very much a matter of business.

Respectfully,
W. E. Jackson,
J. H. Murray,
J. H. Horn.

On account of being out of the City could not be present at the November meeting, but I hereto attach my signature endorsing the action of the remainder of the Board.

W. R. Schultz.

McELWRATH AND COMPANY

McElwrath & Company, which have been operating on the Y. & M. V. rail road in the old potato curing plant for the past two years has secured building privileges from the rail road and will at once erect a concrete building south of the depot, where they will be more convenient to the public and where they expect to enlarge their lines and therefore be in a better position to serve the buying public. The business has been and will continue to be actively in charge of Mr. A. T. McElwrath, one of Grenada's best citizens and a man thoroughly versed in the line of merchandise he handles. The Sentinel takes pleasure in calling attention to the firm's change of location and is authorized to state that a much larger line of heavy groceries as well as feed stuff will be handled and that the goods will be sold at rock-bottom prices.

CAMPBELL McLEAN BEFORE SUPREME COURT

Wm. C. McLean, Jr., made his first appearance before the State Supreme court at Jackson Monday. When he left the court he adjourned several of the judges of the court paid him the compliment of especially commending his argument. Campbell is a fine young man and is destined to follow in the footsteps of his father in becoming a great lawyer.

And the man who beat Volstead is even dryer than Voly was. Nuf sed.

The Republicans think old berries are superior to a Newberry at this time.

Lodge got by barely with his tail feathers and it is dollars to doughnuts that he is lses peacocky.

The Republicans still have the Edge on the Democrats of New Jersey if the voters did Free-Linghuysen on Nov. 7.

The Republicans Fessed Pomerine in Ohio but the Democrat Donyhued Thompson at the same time.

Too much tariff and an overdose of Newberry was a worse emetic than the people could stand, so they emeted on the Republicans.

It appears that the "wets" get consolation out of very small things nowadays. The result of the congressional election shows that when they were not licked by votes that they were deceived by results.

Newberry did not quit until he saw that the Republicans who stood by him were dropping along the wayside like sheep with the dry rot. Ten Republicans out of the 12 that were candidates for reelection who voted not to expel him, went down in defeat.

We congratulate the people of Meridian and the Star on its change of management and ownership. We have not seen much of the Star within the past few years, really not many people 50 miles from Meridian knew that there was a newspaper there at all. From our viewpoint the policy of the Star has been spineless and gutless. May it take on both spine and guts.

HARDING'S ARGUMENT FOR SHIP SUBSIDY

President Harding made the best presentation possible in his message to Congress Tuesday of his viewpoint of the Ship Subsidy bill. The President's argument was ingenious, plausible and subtle. Yet there are some things that even the word of a President cannot whitewash sufficiently to hide the black within.

The President's position boiled down to this: We have passed a tariff law that makes goods so high in this country that foreign goods will hunt every possible market elsewhere first; therefore our merchant ships coming from across the ocean have but little back loads.

Again we are reminded of the foolish man who put rocks in one end of a sack swung across his mule's back to balance the potatoes. He put in too many rocks, hence some rocks were needed in the other end. They went in, then that side of the sack was too heavy and more rocks were needed in the other side again. The result was the poor mule soon had more than it could carry. The policy of the Republican party of pouring money into the pockets and coffers of the big manufacturers has crippled trade with foreign countries and caused the ship barons to imagine that they must earn far more money than they are entitled to. It is another case of rocks in the sack and the poor mule, except that in this particular case the public is the mule.

MR. R. W. SHARP WEDS MRS. MARME WARDLAW WENDALL

On Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of her parents, now occupied by her brother, Charles Wardlaw, at Oxford, Mr. Robert W. Sharp of Grenada and Mrs. Marme Wardlaw Wendall were married, Rev. J. A. Christian of the Presbyterian church saying the ceremony.

Mr. Sharp is one of Grenada's best, most worthy and most useful citizens. He makes few pretensions, yet he has so thoroughly established himself in the confidence and the esteem of the community that he is regarded as a rock to be used in every good work and as a safe refuge upon which to anchor everything that men call high, noble and pure. As a citizen he can be counted on to shoulder his part of every public duty. He is well grounded in the essentials of all that it takes to make a true gentleman. By nature he is kind and obliging. In truth it can properly be said that he can be counted on to love and cherish the woman of his choice and that he will do his part towards making the sun to shine and the rainbows to appear along the marital pathway.

Mrs. Sharp is an elegant woman. She is cultured and refined in the highest and best sense of these words. She comes of one of the best families of Oxford. She possesses an amiableness and gentleness of character, coupled with that intuition and good common sense, which is one womanhood's greatest attributes, that makes her exceptionally attractive and gives assurance that she will meet the important and sacred duties she has assumed with a grace born of love and esteem, and that gives a guarantee of happiness and contentment.

Besides immediate relatives of the bride at Oxford and some close friends, the following from Grenada were present to witness the nuptials: Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Sharp, Mrs. D. B. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Roane, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sharp and Miss Mary Ida and Bessie Phelan Sharp and Mrs. S. W. Wardlaw.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom went by auto to Holly Springs where they boarded the Frisco train for Memphis. They will spend a few days in Memphis before returning to Grenada where they will be at home to their friends in the Sharp residence on Main street. The Sentinel wishes for Mr. and Mrs. Sharp a serene and smooth journey through life.

WINONA VS. GRENADA THANKSGIVING

The final football game of the season will be played in Grenada on Thanksgiving Day, next Thursday, Nov. 30, when the Grenada High School meets her most hated rival, Winona, on Phelan Field, school grounds, at 2:45 p. m. Both schools have good teams that have been constantly in preparation for the Thanksgiving fray and each team has gradually eliminated its weak points and developed new lines of offense and defense so that the game on the local gridiron will be such that the lovers of good football will enjoy seeing it. A strong bunch of rooters is expected to accompany the visitors and it is up to Grenada to turn out in full strength and give their encouragement and support to the home boys.

DODGE BROTHERS SEDAN

Many who could well afford more expensive cars are showing a marked preference for Dodge Brothers Sedan.

They find it easy to drive, economical to run, and comparable in beauty and elegance with cars much higher in price.

In the vast amplitude of Dodge Brothers closed body plant, this sedan is constructed with all the studious precision that marks the work of the finest custom builders.

Eighteen days are devoted alone to the 18 rubbing and varnishing operations which are responsible for the unusual brilliancy of its lustre.

Months of seasoning precede the use of the fine, critically selected ash which gives the body its rugged firmness.

The interior fittings, too, are chosen with thoughtfulness and rare good taste. The upholstery is covered with genuine mohair velvet of a singularly rich and beautiful pattern. The seats are roomy and luxurious.

Steel disc wheels (with cord tires) harmonize in a most effective way with the new grace and smartness which Dodge Brothers have recently brought to the lines of the body.

MRS. R. N. PROVINCE
DIED MONDAY

Mrs. Nancy Province, wife of Capt. R. N. Province, died Monday at her home, eighteen miles east of Grenada at Coles Creek, Calhoun County, after a somewhat protracted illness of more than twelve months. Her remains were laid to rest in the Shiloh church burying ground on Tuesday afternoon, after funeral services conducted from the church by Rev. Mr. Mitchell, of the Baptist church.

Mrs. Province lacked only ten days being eighty three years of age. Before her marriage, she was Miss Nancy Going. The married life of her and her husband covered sixty three eventful years. To them nine children were born, eight sons and one daughter. The death of a son, C. C. Province, some six months ago, was the first death to occur among the members of their household. In this respect her home was wonderfully blessed. She had spent the whole of her married life on the farm where the end came.

In many respects the home of Capt. and Mrs. Province was one of the most prominent of Calhoun County and one of the noted in the State. Their children were those that would be regarded as an honor to any father and mother; their lives show that many anxious hours of brain and nerve of father and mother, and that these good parents instinctively believed in the Scriptural admonition to train up a child in the way he should go so that when he is old he will not depart from it.

Thus it is that when one of the character of this noble woman lays down life's burden to put on the robe of righteousness prepared by a loving and crucified Savior, it is an event of far more than ordinary significance. It is wholesome for the world to meditate on the work wrought by such a woman. There was an elegance of simplicity about the home over which Mrs. Province presided that bespoke the mind of a woman of rare intelligence. She was gentle in all things. She was the good Samaritan of her community. From her home radiated many of the best things that touched the welfare and the happiness of her neighbors. It was her mission to see the sunshine behind the clouds, to point to the rainbow in every storm. It was a solace and a delight to her to do for others. She was the counselor of her husband. She was the guiding star for her children. For years she had been a member of the Baptist church, and well may her loved ones feel that her going away is but a transplanting to that happy home above prepared for the redeemed of the Lord.

To the aged husband and other loved ones, The Sentinel tenders sincere sympathy.

SCHOOL NOTES

On Friday afternoon, in Water Valley our foot ball team met the Water Valley High School team. The game was clean and hard fought on both sides. Though both teams threw their all into the fray, not once did the ball cross the line that meant victory for one side or the other. Many of the boys and girls accompanied the team and cheered for them as they played.

Thanksgiving Game

It is rumored in and around Winona that their High School team is going to whip our team on Thanksgiving. We are determined that "They shall not pass." Our boys are practicing hard every afternoon. They are determined! Our boys and those boys not on the team have pledged their support—they are determined! The teachers are interested and ready to stand back of the team—they are determined! Now, town people, what are you willing to do? Let us know that you are backing the team also, that you are coming out to the game, that you are determined! We can not let them pass! Down with Winona!!

Dr. Province in Chapel

Last week we had the golden opportunity of hearing Dr. Province of Mississippi College. If you have never heard this whole-souled gentleman speak, then you have missed something that would do your heart good. Mr. Rundle promised to bring us a "big gun" from the Baptist convention then in session—and he did!

Regular school work will be carried on Saturday of this week in order that we may have the Friday following Thanksgiving as holiday. Be sure you send the pupils to school; they can not afford to miss a day's work.—Reporter.

GRENADA COLLEGE DEFEATS OLE MISS CO-EDS

On last Saturday afternoon, Nov. 18th, the basketball team of Grenada College marched to victory over the Co-eds from the University, the final score being 19 to 16. The visitors were never in the lead, the Grenada girls scoring five points at the very start of the game. Both teams played excellent ball but the pass work of the Co-eds could not compare with that of Grenada.

A CORRECTION

In The Sentinel last week, it was stated that the tree planted on Armistice Day on the Jefferson Davis Highway by the local post of the American Legion was donated by Mrs. J. P. Broadstreet on behalf of the Woman's Club. This was in error. The tree was donated on behalf of the Beautifying Work of the Jefferson Davis Highway Association, of which work Mrs. Broadstreet is chairman.

TREES PLANTED FOR THOMAS AND HOFFA

Acting under the direction of Mrs. J. P. Broadstreet, chairman of the beautifying department of the Jefferson Davis Highway, and also president of the Woman's Club of Grenada, two trees were officially planted at the north end of the Yalobusha river bridge last Friday afternoon, one of which was named "Thomas" and the other "Hoffa" as a memorial to the work of these gentlemen in connection with the Jefferson Davis Highway. Rev. J. R. Cunningham made an appropriate dedicatory speech.

Stella Vitae Campaign Against Female Disease Sweeping Entire State

Statement Of Leander, Texas, Woman Discussing Her Troubles Is Typical Of Thousands Received Indorsing Remarkable Treatment.

The Stella Vitae Health Campaign continues to increase in force as new evidence of the powers of the treatment in overcoming Female Troubles causes hundreds all over Mississippi to join in the fight against the diseases that are keeping women weak, suffering and unhappy.

Letters that ring with words of sincerity from grateful women who have been delivered from their miserable sufferings through the Stella Vitae treatment are being received daily in large numbers. People in every section of the state are talking about Stella Vitae and discussing their own experiences or those of friends who have obtained wonderful relief from Female Troubles after a course of this preparation.

Another interesting and unusual feature in connection with the Health Drive is the fact that hundreds of people are asking that their statements be given to the public, in order that other suffering women may be induced to obtain a supply of Stella Vitae and take advantage of this opportunity to regain their own health, strength and happiness.

Typical of many like letters is one from Mrs. Robert Cole, of Leander, Texas, who says:

"I want everybody to know how much benefit I have received from Stella Vitae treatment. It is without question the best thing I have ever taken. And having tried nearly everything known, without getting any relief, this certainly is a tribute to the merits of Stella Vitae.

"I have only taken two bottles so far, but the results have already been so remarkable that I am like a different woman in every way. Needless to say, I praise Stella Vitae wherever I go."

When such women as Mrs. Cole come forward and make such straightforward statements regarding Stella Vitae, there can no longer be any doubt about the merit of the preparation. And after so many successful tests of the treatment in overcoming the troubles peculiar to women as have been recorded in Mississippi alone, it becomes the positive duty of every woman who is weak, run-down and suffering continual misery as a result of Female Troubles to begin taking the Stella Vitae treatment immediately.

Health, strength, natural beauty and the joys of life are the splendidly satisfactory results usual when a faithful trial is given this remarkable preparation that has proven a great boon to womankind.

Note—Stella Vitae may be obtained from any druggist and is sold upon the positive guarantee that if benefit is not received the purchase price will be refunded.—Druggists are supplied from the Van Vleet-Mansfield Drug Co., Memphis, Tenn., Distributors.—Adv.
